<h1>July 2021</h1> ED-PNCC Mission and Evangelism Prayer, Discipleship 2021: St. Paul, Early Life and Transformation					Saul of Tarsus was determined to find and persecute the followers of Jesus. His life changed...	...when Jesus met him on the road to Damascus, blinding him and stopping him in his tracks.
God had other plans for Saul. He would be Paul, an apostle of our Lord Jesus Christ.	Once zealous in his desire to destroy the Church, Paul repented of his sin, was forgiven...	and experienced God's love and grace. His life was completely transformed.	Are we ready for Jesus to radically transform our lives for His glory? Revive us, Lord!	1 (Matthew 9:1-8, today's Gospel). Who can I carry in prayer to Jesus today?	2 (Acts 26:12-18) Our prayer: open their eyes, turn them from darkness to light...	3 Lord, free us from darkness. Keep us in the radiance of Your truth. Your Word is truth.
4 Pray for the USA and its leaders on this Independence Day.	5 What sacrifice am I willing to make so that others may believe in the Lord Jesus?	6 The harvest is plenty, the laborers few. (Pray Psalm 51)	10 Read / meditate on Matthew 10. Know that you are called by God and precious to Him!
11 To whom is Jesus sending me today? Spend time in prayer and ask for His guidance.	12 What challenges do I face in sharing my faith? How may I overcome them?	13 Jesus, help me to see You in every person I meet, even those whom I would rather avoid.	14 Lord, what is Your deepest desire for me? For Your Church? Help us to listen and obey.	15 What burdens do I need to bring to the Lord? What situations have been troubling me?	16 "All law must serve the law of love." (Sacred Space)	17 How may I best take up my cross and walk in Jesus' footsteps today?
18 "Unless we are ready through His power to die in the likeness of His passion..."	19...His life is not in us." ~ Ignatius of Antioch, bishop and martyr (35-108 AD)	20 Holy Spirit, come! Renew our hearts, that others may see Jesus in us.	21 Jesus invites me to be a cherished member of His family. (See Matthew 12)	22 "...Anyone who belongs to Christ has become a new person..."	23...The old life is gone; a new life has begun!" ~ 2 Corinthians 5:17	24 (2 Cor. 6:14-18) Lord, help me to live remembering that my body is Your dwelling place.
25 Bring what you have to Jesus; with it, He will bless others. (See John 6)	26 James the Greater - Whoever wishes to be great must be the servant of all.	27 Do good and trust God to root out evil in His time. (See Matthew 13: 36-43)	28 [The Lord] said, "My grace is all you need. My power works best in weakness. I am..."	29...glad to boast about my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ can work through me."	30 2 Corinthians 4 gives an eternal perspective on temporal troubles - read and take heart!	31 Lord, give me wisdom and courage to speak the truth, even if it costs me everything.
